SUBJECT No. 258.

Making Sanskrit a compulsory language to the Mysory Lower Secondary Examination.

Messrs. M. Venkataramaiya, and D. Chowdaiya, Channarayapatna taluk.

Summary of discussion.—According to the existing curriculum of the Mysore Lower Secondary Examination, Sanskrit is not a compulsory language. It is quite necessary that it should be made compulsory, since students preparing for the University Matriculation Examination are required to study that language. Unless Sanskrit is taught in the primary classes, it is hard for students in the higher classes to begin that classical language. Pray therefore that the study of Sanskrit in lower classes be made compulsory.

Reply of Government.—Will be considered.

SUBJECT No. 259.

Sanskrit College for Lingayets and non-Brahmins.

Messrs. Chennabasava Wodiyar, Devanhalli taluk, and Malur Siddappa, Arsikere taluk.

Summary of discussion.—The want of a separate Sanskrit institution for Lingayets and other non-Brahmins is greatly felt both in Mysore and Bangalore. As facilities for learning are blocked up to these people, it is requested that Government Colleges to impart Sanskrit education to them may be opened.
